

H&R Johnson introduces TOP SHIELD

Anti-Microbial Counter top in Quartz

H&R Johnson (India), India's leading Integrated Lifestyle Solution provider offering tiles, bathroom products, modular kitchens and engineered marble & quartz announces the launch of a breakthrough product from Johnson Marble & Quartz, Johnson Top Shield, an anti-microbial counter top in quartz. Johnson Top Shield is a pre-fabricated, ready-to-install and germ-free quartz kitchen countertop that will change cooking spaces forever.

The Johnson Top Shield is manufactured with a special anti-microbial formula which is also certified as food-grade. Developed through the fusion of pure natural quartz and with Johnson's technical expertise, Top Shield offers the beauty of natural granite without the maintenance associated with it. Top Shield has a whole host of other advantages over granite as well. It is as strong as the natural stone, but requires no resealing, and is highly resistant to scratches and stains. It is a pre-fabricated drip-free kitchen countertop which hugely reduces the hassles of installation and labour cost hence making it highly recommended for modular kitchens.

The Johnson Top Shield is available in a variety of textures and colours. The standard dimension available is 10ft x 28½ inches and the standard thickness is of 18mm.

With so many benefits over granite, The Johnson Top Shield offers consumers a revolutionary, hassle-free and extremely hygienic option for kitchen countertops. It definitely brings a gorgeous depth to your interiors and is a perfect fit for your dream kitchen.
